Hello everyone,

I am back in the office. I understand that a really good discussion took place during my absence regarding the applicability of Title VI to ADC, which was an important part to moving forward with the informal resolution approach. As a heads up, I will be checking the schedules of our point folks over the upcoming week or so to determine availability for the introductory call with both the Hawaii agencies. I have reattached the draft agenda and TPs in this email as a reference. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Per our last conversation regarding moving forward with the call with recipients, I have updated the related planning documents. It is my understand that this call will be set for some time after the 8/11 briefing concerning ADC's recipient status arguments. In addition, I have reached out to Paul Achitoff (Earthjustice) to confirm whether there are any additional complainants who would be available for interviews. I have asked Paul to contact Lilian & Jeryl if those individuals may be available during my absence.
